

14 July 1964

Art. 81 - Conspiracy:

The accused did conspire on or about 29 June 1964 with CTL LOCKERT to make as many of the Chiefs, present here today, drunk and/or sick by serving them the wrong drinks.

This is a very serious charge in that every one here has not been expecting such lowdown underhanded tactics, therefore, I ask this court for a return of "GUILTY" as charged.

Drink a beer with an egg.

Art. 91 - Contempt:

In that the accused did make the statement that when a man puts on the hard hat he forgets how it feels to be a white hat and that all chiefs treat blue jackets as some lowly being and without brotherly love of any kind.

Gentlemen:

The accused should know better than anyone else how utterly wrong this statement of his is - because he has a dear brother who is a Chief Petty Officer, ~~and~~ I'm sure that if necessary we could obtain several witnesses from this group who would testify to the outstanding character of Chief Larry Lopez.

Give a 5 min speech on the advantages of being a COP without referring to uniform, pay or prestige.

Art. 93 - Cruelty:

In that the accused on or about 2 July 1964 did order, three persons subject to his orders, to accompany him to the local small stores and forced them to watch as he tried on and purchased portions of a Chief uniform.

Here we have a man (OH EXCUSE ME) a thing who has forced good navy men to watch while he strutted around in a uniform which he has not learned - by example - to wear in the proper manner.

Egg on the head.
